SINGLE TAXES CONTINUED BY PORT ALBERNI

Mayor Kendall Wins Fight Against Tax on Improvements

Levy Will Be Fifty-five Mills and Deficit of $8,000 Feared

Special to The Times
Port Alberni, April 28.—The improvement tax question, which has been troubling Port Alberni civic affairs for a month, was settled yesterday evening by the city council, when the proposed improvement levy was defeated on the casting vote of Mayor Kendall.
Aldermen Jones, Stone and Fleming also voted against the tax, while Aldermen Desha, McMillan and Turner supported it, the votes being recorded on request of Alderman Turner.

The tax rate by-law passed first and second readings at fifty-five mills on land. A majority of the council feared that a vote on the improvement tax would result in a defeat at the end of the year of approximately $8,000.

A suggestion the bandits escaped across the Fraser in a boat or canoe is not accepted by police. They say they have been unable to find any trace of a boat which might have been used by the fugitives.

NORTH OF RIVER

Police to-day were concentrating their forces on the woods north of the river. They said the men could not have got through to Agassiz, and they did not think they had been able to work west towards Ruskin and Vancouver.

The bandits are reported to be well armed. They all have revolvers, and in addition, one carries a rifle.

WORE MASKS

When they robbed the hotel the men wore masks, and J. Ogan, a Japanese, who was held up and bound by the desperadoes, is unable to furnish police with a description of them.

The trio yesterday afternoon broke through the cordon provincial police had thrown around the area in which the men were known to be. It is suspected they traveled north into the bush country, which is criss-crossed by numerous old logging roads.

CHEQUES WORTHLESS

Hotel officials estimate about $250 in cash was stolen. The balance of the lost, amounting in all to nearly $700, was made up of cheques, payment of which were stopped at the banks following the robbery. In addition, it is reported the body included some bonds, the value of which has not been determined.

The bandits, it was learned to-day, also stole a quantity of chocolate bars from the hotel. This, it is believed, will enable them to subsist for a few days without having to come out of the bush for food.

MAN TRACED

New Westminster, April 28.—Two local police officers left this morning for Tacoma, Wash., on the trail of a reputed United States gangster, suspected of being one of the three armed bandits who blew the safe in the Harrison Hotel last night.

The departure of Deputy Chief Syd Bass and Detective Jack Allen, followed the discovery by Bass yesterday of fingerprints on an electric lamp bulb in the hotel.

Examined by Bass, who is the department's fingerprint expert, the impressions were found to be those of a man who had been in the British Columbia penitentiary here, and was released recently.

This man was a member of a United States bandit gang, it is stated, and the police officers' trip is for the purpose of gathering further information about him and his confederates in the south.

RULES STRENGTHENED
Mr. Bourassa referred to the revision in 1927 of the rules of the Canadian House of Commons. He quoted general rule No. 1 in Beauchamp's book: "In all cases not provided for by the rules, the speaker shall have the right to decide." He said that the rules, the usages and customs of the House of Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and North Ireland as in force at the time shall be followed so far as they may be applicable to this House. Beauchamp, however, had made a mistake in one of his footnotes.

Strengthening the phrase "at the time," in general rule No. 1, Mr. Bourassa declared former Speaker Lemieux had twice decided members of the Canadian House did not have to vote, and this was the practice prevailing now in the British Commons.

Members of the Independent group if they did not want to support a government or opposition motion or amendment, should not be compelled to vote and should have freedom in this regard, he claimed.

Before 1905 the rules in the British House compelled members to vote if they were present. At that time the rules were changed, and at present permitted a member to refrain from voting, said Mr. Bourassa.

Premier Bennett expressed gratitude to Mr. Bourassa for his work in tracing the history of the rules, and complimented him on his learned and impartial exposition. He could not agree with the motion, however.

The reason for the change in England was confusion which arose owing to the system of members going out to the lobby to record their votes and the fact that the old rule was generally disregarded.

"In my view," he said, "every member of this House should record his House when he is present. I would remind the members they are elected not to represent merely their constituencies but to represent the people of Canada as a whole. It is the duty of a member to express his opinion on matters that affect the people of the country as a whole.

COMMITTEE PLAN
Hon. W. D. Euler, Liberal, North Waterloo, Ont., after supporting the view a member should not be compelled to vote, moved a sub-amendment that a committee of five be appointed to consider the question of the lines set out in Mr. Bourassa's motion, namely that members should not be compelled to vote on a division.

The tax rate by-law passed first

VANCOUVER MILK ACT IS NOW TAKEN TO COURT FOR FULL TEST

Canadian Press
Vancouver, April 28.—Picking up the gauntlet thrown down by the Milk Adjustment Committee, which issued a B.C. Supreme Court writ at New Westminster in an attempt to enforce the recent Lower Mainland Dairy Products Sales Adjustment Act against the Crystal Dairy Limited, Commercial Drive, Vancouver, an appearance has been entered by the defendant. The company proposes to attack the constitutionality of the enactment.
The appearance was filed on behalf of the Crystal Dairy Limited, distributors for independent milk producers, by its solicitors, Parris, Parris, Stuts and Sloan.
The defendant is prepared to fight the constitutional question to the last.

Since the committee decided to test the act out in the courts, the Court of Appeal of Saskatchewan declined the Saskatchewan Grain Marketing Act of 1921 is ultra vires. That decision, it is said here, will have bearing on the constitutionality of the Milk Act.

During the debate, Premier Bennett asked if the members considered the effect on provincial health organizations and others if the resolution were adopted. In England there was no nationalization of the grain. The grain in one country in the world had such a proposal been accepted and the results in that country were quite uncertain.

"This is an experiment in Socialism carried on in no country but one," the Prime Minister declared. "Time has not permitted the results to be known. But surely we cannot declare we are going to engage on such a large experiment in Socialism."

The provinces and municipalities have their services and the dominion contributed generously by appropriation to health expenditures and there was an item in this year's estimates for such purposes. But this did not mean the constitutional legal angle to the question. Premier Bennett suggested the discussion having taken place, a resolution might well be withdrawn.

He did not believe the most ardent believer in state medicine was prepared to vote for its resolution in the terms in which it read.

BEYOND AVERAGE PERSON
Dr. L. W. Johnston, Conservative, Cape Breton North-Victoria, said no doubt great strides had been made in medicine in the last number of years in the use of the serum, etc., but this did not come within the reach of the ordinary man. In many instances hospital expenses were high for the average individual. He spoke of the work of the provinces in health matters.

MINISTER AGREES
"State medicine has been established and developed in several European countries and in Great Britain," said John. Murray, Minister of Health, National Health and Pensions. "It has developed there because they have large communities of greater poverty than we have, but so far has not been applied on the American continent."

"But it is coming in Canada. I believe we are going to have some form of state medicine in this country before very long. I do not suggest it should come under the Dominion Government."

While he supported the idea of the resolution, Dr. MacLaren felt the purpose of the movement was to bring the provinces into the field of the dominion and provincial responsibility should be settled and should be subject of study.

In present nearly all matters relating to public health came within the field of the provincial governments, but the consideration of a scheme for the health of the province determination of whether the scheme should be handled by the provincial or federal authorities or by both working together.

MEDICINE NOT SUP-PORTED

Even if sections of British landowners are displaying an increasing determination to do all in their power to bring about the fall of the Labor Government, following the budget speech, observers estimate the task of upsetting the government on this issue alone would be doubly difficult, since a similar proposal once was favored by Rt.
Hon. David Lloyd George, Liberal leader, and although later abandoned is understood to have been sympathy for his Liberal following, who held the balance of power in the Commons.

Mr. Snowden's proposal went unexplained, officially, and several papers today said the Labor Government was not prepared to support the government's project was broadened.

EXCHANGE FUND
The exchange fund kept in New York, from which the Chancellor reserved some $100,000,000 to help bridge the gap of $108,830,000 expected in the 1931-32 financial year, amounts to $105,000,000.

COMMON COLD
The closing minute of the debate was Dr. Howden's with the Prime Minister after the former had asserted
"Mr. Bennett's statement that the fact that doctors have never isolated the germ of the common cold." This brought the Premier to his feet.

"I did not deny it. I only pointed out the fact," declared Mr. Bennett.
A minute later Dr. Howden asserted he thought the Prime Minister had barred some four or five years ago the fact that doctors had never isolated the germ of the common cold. This brought the Premier to his feet.

HEALTH VITAL TO NATION
Dr. Howden, in his remarks, said that health was considered the great of the state, then the state should adopt measures to ensure elimination of disease. He advocated national control of health, through police, which enough to embrace all the people. Police protected property, but no national steps were taken to combat "the more subtle enemy, disease." The state supervised education, but what about education if health were missing?
"What nonsense. What nonsense!"
exclaimed the Premier. Having a duplicate copy of the official report of his speech to hand at the moment, Mr.
Bennett read therefrom to show his response to the speaker.

"There are some who tell you small-pox should be dealt with by vaccination," he had said, "but there is at the same time a very powerful propaganda against it."

Special to The Times
Nanaimo, April 28.—The death of Mrs. W. Poole, wife of William nounced to-day. She was a widow, 75 years of age, and was born in England. She is survived by her husband, one son, Frederick Poole, and one daughter, Mrs. J.

Campbell, of Victoria. The remains rested at the Jenkins Undertaking Parlors, pending funeral arrangements.

MANITOBA SELLS ISSUE OF NOTES

Winnipeg, April 28.—Premier John Bracken of Manitoba to-day announced the provincial government had awarded an issue of $2,000,000 of two-year, 6 per cent notes to a banking syndicate which includes the Bank of Montreal, the First National Bank of New York and the firm of Salomon Brothers and Rutzler.
Bids were also received from other strong syndicates, the Premier said.
The price paid by the successful syndicate was 100.00, the province paying 3.56 per cent for the money.

It would be more effective and less costly than the present system. It would mean prevention, not cure. To be effective, it should be contributing and compulsory.

EXPERIMENT IN SOCIALISM
During the debate, Premier Bennett
asked if the members considered the

S. Africa Enters As Big Factor In Fruit Export

Capetown, South Africa, April 28.—The extent to which the fruit export trade from South Africa is increasing is evidenced by the fact that 900,000 cases of oranges were shipped from Capetown during the year 1930, as against 400,000 in 1929, according to the Cape Argus. This satisfactory state of affairs has been brought about largely through the pre-cooling facilities provided by the South African railways and harbors at Durban, as well as Capetown.

The pre-cooling store at Capetown is situated on the East Pier—No. 8 berth—where the mailboats depart. When No. 8 berth is occupied it naturally follows that only one ship can be loaded from the store, and the administration has, therefore, decided to construct an overhead gallery round the bend of the east pier, which will permit of ships at No. 7 berth being loaded with fruit from the store simultaneously with those at No. 8 berth.

The gallery will consist of a covered insulated overhead curved passage with double tracks, and will run from the second story of the pre-cooling store to the upper story of the cargo shed. The pre-cooled fruit will be packed on barrows in the store and a specially designed electrical trolley, with trailers, will convey these barrows along the gallery to the loading platform. The steelwork and reinforced concrete—in the foundations—are at present being designed, and every endeavor will be made to have the entire work completed at the earliest possible date. The increased loading facilities will ensure swifter dispatch of traffic, and will considerably lessen the movement of ships in the basin.

Subsidies To Provinces Total Over $19,000,000

Ottawa, April 28.—A total of $19,035,731 was paid for the fiscal year which ended March 31 last to the nine provinces of Canada by the Dominion Government in way of regular or special subsidies.

In one ton of water from the Dead Sea there are 187 pounds of salt.

HYDRO PLANS MADE IN SPAIN

Republican Government Also Breaking Up Former Royal
Tracts of Land

Madrid, April 28.—The government yesterday took steps to insure for future public benefit two kinds of property hitherto little used by the masses of the people. The first consists of the great tracts of land formerly reserved as royal estates, and the second the waters suitable for producing hydro-electric power for industrial development.

A special government commission was appointed to study the hydro-electric possibilities of all of which were declared national property, and an order was issued to grant no concessions to private industrial corporations for hydro-electric development until adequate measures were taken to insure the nation should retain ownership of the resources.

Formulation of plans for the building of many workmen's cottages in the great "prado," one of the former royal estates near Madrid, was also begun yesterday.

It was planned to rent these cottages as cheaply as possible and to make their construction serve both to reduce unemployment at present and to reduce the cost of living afterward.

SHELVE PLAN FOR ARMISTICE DAY

Ottawa, April 28.—A bill to have Armistice Day celebrated on November 11 every year instead of on the Monday nearest November 11, as at present, was shelved in the Commons yesterday evening when the members staged a full dress vote on a motion to adjourn the debate only ten minutes before the regular hour of adjournment.

The debate arose on the second reading of the bill to amend the Armistice Day Act, sponsored by A. W. Neill, Independent, Comox-Alberni. Mr. Neill said he represented the views of the War Veterans' organizations in all parts of Canada in asking for a change.

Armistice Day was not a holiday, he said. It was never intended to be a holiday. It was a day of remembrance and should be so properly observed. The views of the soldiers should be respected.

Only one speaker besides Mr. Neill took part in the debate. C. H. Dickie, Conservative, Nanaimo, supported the bill, but advanced the suggestion the name should be changed from "Armistice Day" to "Remembrance Day."

In view of the fact this is not a political matter and that there is considerable feeling in the country, I move adjournment of the debate, said James Arthur, Conservative, Parry Sound, Ont.

The adjournment carried by 74 votes to 52.

MEXICO BANDITS HANGED TO MAKE HIGHWAYS SAFE

Special to The Times
Mexico City, April 28.—The terrible but effective old-time western remedy of a lot of strong rope and an eight-foot drop from a handy tree by the roadside, resorted to by authorities of the state of Jalisco, has made safe for motorists the beautiful highway recently operated out of Guadalajara to Chapala, a delightful journey of forty miles, now point out the improvised gallows to tourists. The gibbet is a "mule" tree, a slender sprig, even in broad daylight, which resembles the elm. It is about half way between Guadalajara and the lake. A notorious "road agent" known as "El Negrito" (Blackie), who had piled his trade on many Jalisco roads, fell afoul of a cavalry patrol on the Guadalajara-Chapala highway. He was convicted by court-martial and sentenced to death, not by the usual firing squad, but by hanging from the "mezquite" tree, a short distance from the court-martial site.

The body swung from the bough for several days, as a warning to others who might be tempted to gain easy money by holding up tourists. Prompt executions of the death sentence for highway robbery have made banditry an unpopular craft in Mexico nowadays. All the principal roads have little crosses by the wayside, marking the resting places of "road agents," executed by firing squads immediately after court-martial.

AUTOISTS HAVE NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH

Saskatoon, Sask., April 28.—Three men, one of them believed to be the son of a man known prominently in this province, narrowly escaped death yesterday afternoon or early in the evening when a livery car in which they were riding sidwiped a standing grave truck five miles north of the city on Avenue A, rolled over in the ditch and jammed against a telephone pole.

One of the occupants of the taxi car, who gave his name and address as Jack Delaney of Meadow Lake, was located in St. Paul's Hospital, where he had been sent by a physician on account of an injured shoulder, which was in a very bad way. Delaney refused to divulge the names of his companions or give any statement to the Royal Canadian Mounted Police.

KING MORE ILL THAN REALIZED

But Is Recuperating, Says
London Daily; Return to London Postponed

London, April 28.—The Evening Standard said to-day in its column entitled "A Londoner's Diary," that the King's recent illness, from which he is now convalescing, was more serious than the public generally believed.

"Now that convalescence has been reached to the extent of dining out of his bedroom," the account said, "there is no harm in revealing that His Majesty's illness was more severe than was generally supposed."

The announcement that the King will not return to London next Monday is no surprise to those in the royal entourage, the newspaper said.

FOUR MINERS LOSE THEIR LIVES

Nuneston, Eng., April 28.—Four miners were killed to-day when they were engulfed by a fall of slate while at work. Three others were saved by rescue squads.

STOP "BIDDING" BY UNDERTAKERS

Government Will Not "Call Tenders" Now For Ex-Service Men's Funerals

Ottawa, April 28.—Without division, the Commons passed a resolution yesterday evening that the "practice" of calling for tenders for burial of the bodies of ex-service men should be discontinued.

Before the resolution passed, Hon. Murray MacLaren, Minister of Pensions and National Health, declared the system in vogue had been in practice for nine or ten years and "no restriction regarding the amount to be charged was placed in any instance."

When a soldier under the care of the department died, certain undertakers in the locality were written, and the idea paramount in the minds of the department was a decent and proper burial worthy of the dead. Official records showed many expressions of appreciation and gratitude on the part of the relatives of the deceased, and very few suggestions of criticism. The expenditures on the part of the department in such cases varied from $71 to $195.

The system as carried on at present was supported by Major C. G. Power, Liberal, Quebec South, who agreed with the minister that no limit was set to the cost of funerals for ex-service men in the care of the Department of Pensions and National Health.

Hon. Ian Mackenzie, Liberal, Vancouver Centre, supported, Brig.-Gen. A. E. Ross, Conservative, Kingston, mover of the resolution, and expressed the opinion the present system was unsatisfactory.

Mr. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, Liberal leader, said the mover of the resolution had brought up the matter in the last Parliament, and he (Mr. King) had suggested contributions might be made to the Last Post Fund if necessary.

Premier Bennett said that in his interpretation of the word "bid" was "no such thing as bidding. The present practice of asking undertakers to submit fees had been in vogue under the previous administration, and he was no desire to have the impression created there was anything that might be suggested as bidding."

GYPSUM MAKES NEW LOW UNDER 9

Toronto, April 28.—The market continued its process of slow decline to-day with the price of practically all groups, from a fraction to a point lower at the close on Toronto Stock Exchange.

Brazilian was unchanged at 18½; Bell Telephone lost a point; Ford of Canada nearly a point; gypsum dipped to a new low under 9 and the steels were weak. Steel of Canada lost 1½ points and Pacer-Hersey descended to record low ground under 80. Oils were soft, and down fractionally.

More Than Half Coal Used in This Country Imported

Ottawa, April 28.—Total consumption of coal in Canada for the fiscal year which ended March 31 last was 330,247,081 tons, of which 183,111,524, or 57 per cent, was imported, according to information given the Commons yesterday afternoon.

The country exporting the largest volume to Canada was the United States. From that republic came 16,945,558 tons of anthracite and bituminous coal, lignite and coke. From the United Kingdom the imports were 1,081,070 tons, and from Russia 284,271 tons.

Smaller quantities were imported from Germany, French East Indies and Newfoundland.

MANITOBA ELECTION SPECULATION
Winnipeg, April 28.—Rumors his government would call a general election before July were greeted with laughter by Premier John Bracken yesterday when he was questioned on the authenticity. The government, he said, had no intention of "going off half-cocked." An election next year will be a necessity if the government decides against going to the people this year. The Bracken administration has been in power nearly four years.

POLICE SEIZE MANY PAPERS IN WINNIPEG

Take 15,000 Copies of "The Worker" in Raid on Communist Headquarters

Winnipeg, April 28.—In a raid on Communist headquarters here, a squad of police yesterday evening seized several bundles of "The Worker," a Communist publication.

The bundles, it was said, contained 15,000 copies of the paper, a special edition which was to have been distributed in connection with the May Day celebration here.

Police authorities declined to comment on the raid, but Communist leaders expressed defiance, declaring: "We are going to distribute literature and bring the message of the Communist Party to the workers."

"Tactics to suppress us are similar to those which were adopted by the Czar of Russia," declared I. Minister, prominent local Communist. "What happened to him? The same will happen to Canadian capitalists."

SCOTTISH WIN WARM PRAISE

First Battalion Under Lieut. Col. F. B. W. Stephenson Commended at Inspection

High tribute to the excellent manner in which the officers and N.C.O.'s put the troops through their drills and warm praise for the manner in which the soldiers carried them out, was voiced by officers inspecting the 1st Battalion (10th C.E.F.) the Canadian Scottish Regiment at the Armories yesterday evening.

Under Lieut. Col. F. B. W. Stephenson, officer commanding, the unit went through its manoeuvres and drills in a smart and soldierly manner. Led by Brigadier J. Sutherland Brown, G.O.C., M.D. No. 11, the inspection party took the salute on entering the doors of the armories. Following the general work, different departments of the battalion, including the signallers, Lewis gun section, Vickers machine gun section and stretcher bearers carried out their particular drills.

COLORFUL EVENT
The brass band, in red doublets and the pipe band in full belted plaids and the Royal Stuart tartan added color to the parade.

Accompanying Brigadier Sutherland Brown on the inspection were Colonel Pope, D.S.O., A.A.G. and Q.M.G., M.D. No. 11; Major R. Morton, M.C., garrison staff officer; Colonel L. S. Howe, Provincial Secretary, and honorary colonel of the battalion; Colonel D. B. Marlyn, D.S.O., M.C., officer commanding 16th Canadian Scottish; Major A. J. Gray, regimental adjutant, and Capt. G. C. Holland, staff captain.

After inspecting the troops in review order, Gen. J. Sutherland Brown and

STREET PARKING TO BE AIRED BY STORE KEEPERS

City Council to Hear Deputation of Merchants Protest Restrictions

Clover Point Rifle Range Lease Tabled; Civic Use Restricted to Park

The City Council will hear, at its next sitting, a deputation of storekeepers on View Street, between Government and Broad Streets, on whose behalf J. A. Griffiths yesterday wrote protesting against the limitation of car parking. At the session of the council held yesterday afternoon, aldermen stated that the system of diagonal parking on the south frontage and parallel parking beside the north curb had been approved as a compromise. Mayor Anscomb remarked "The streets are for traffic in motion. What can be done for these people if the street is too narrow? I have no objection to hearing their deputation, but what good can it do?" Alderman Litchfield said many storekeepers concerned had valuable stocks, and restrictions might be a factor in putting some out of business.

Alderman Anscomb agreed with Mayor Anscomb, and Alderman Dewar attributed conditions to the tenants of nearby office buildings who left their cars standing below throughout the day, moving them a few feet every hour. "These people complaining should get together with these people in the office," he considered.

ZONING
Convinced that repeal of the zoning by-law would provide no remedy for complaints against erection, at the corner of North Park and Quadra Streets, of a building to be used for an undertaking establishment, the council rejected a recommendation for repeal advanced by Alderman R. T. Williams. Alderman W. T. Straith stated that such a course would enable the site to be used for many purposes at present prohibited.

CLOVER POINT
The council received from Ottawa a copy of a lease of Clover Point rifle range, the document having no conditions other than that the land be used exclusively for park purposes. The lease will be for ninety-nine years at an annual rental of $1 and will be subject to cancellation by Minister of National Defence should use of the land for military purposes be made necessary during an emergency. The lease was tabled for examination.

A copy of the report made to the Lieutenant-Governor by Oscar Bass, K.C., special commissioner, as to the city's management of Mount Douglas Park, was received without comment and tabled for examination.

A letter from John Day, charging the mayor and members of the council with having shown prejudice and bias in regard to his strictures upon the appointment of an assistant to the city clerk, was successful in arousing protests from Aldermen Litchfield and Peden. The latter noted that Mr. Day intimated he considered an apology due him and remarked "The apology is due the other way."

The directors of the Royal Jubilee Hospital wrote the council in appreciation of payment of $20,000 on account of the deficit accrued last year.

U.S. Deficit Largest In Peace Time

Washington, April 23.—U.S. Treasury statement shows expenditures exceeding receipts for the present fiscal year to April 22 by $901,167,797, the largest peace-time deficit in the history of the country.

Wilson, D.S.O., brigadier, 23rd Infantry Brigade, and Capt. W. G. Colquhoun, P.C.L.I., supervised this work and awarded the points, which will count in the Dominion-wide competition.

The Green Mill Officially Opened

CAMERON'S NEW COFFEE SHOP OPENS

The Green Mill is a Tastefully Decorated Soda Fountain and Lunch Counter

Will Provide Twenty-four-hour Service; Local Firms Do All Work

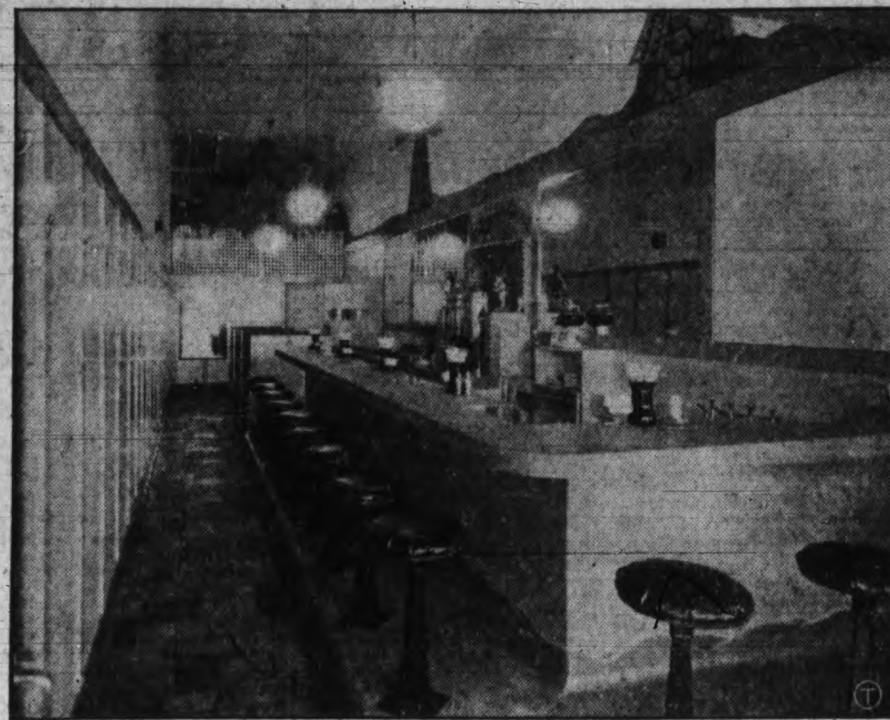

Offering Victorians a twenty-four-hour fountain and light lunch service, in tastefully finished and comfortable quarters, The Green Mill, under the proprietorship of Don Cameron, was officially opened at 645 Yates Street yesterday. Specially designed by Mr. Cameron, and decorated with picturesque old Dutch windmills the shop promises to become an extremely popular place.

In addition to meeting the requirements of day patrons the management plans to specialise in after-theatre and after-the-dance catering.

As well as the comfortable counter stools, three booths have been incorporated in the establishment where parties may sit over their coffee, tea and other refreshments.

With a color scheme of cream and green, the room presents a light, airy appearance which is set off effectively by rich cobble-stone patterned inlaid linoleum furnished by Weiler Brothers. Two men are in charge of the counter during the day and one at night time. Mrs. Cameron will superintend the kitchen.

WELL FINISHED
Exceptionally clever painting by W. H. Johnson and ornamental mills by Reg. Bullock add to the attractiveness of the shop. Window signs have been made by G. Beran and Ranton, cold spring upholstery adds to the comfort of the stools and seats. Lighting fixtures were installed by the Murphy Electric Company. Incorporating improvements seen in Attractive Interior of the Green Mill.

A unique fixture of the ornamental scheme are two little gnomes placed at each side of the coffee urn with mugs of steaming coffee in their hands.

All installations made in the store were obtained from local firms, while the actual construction and arrangement of the establishment was done by Mr. Cameron himself.

SOLARIUM TO GET PROCEEDS

Mill Bay Institution to Benefit From "Fra Diavolo" at Royal on Friday and Saturday

The proceeds of Auber's opera, "Fra Diavolo," which will be given at the Royal Victoria Theatre on Friday and Saturday evening of this week by the Victoria Operatic Society, after all expenses have been deducted, will be given to the Queen Alexandra Solarium for crippled children at Mill Bay, it has been decided by the committee in charge of finances.

Dress rehearsals are now being held for the production. One of the most beautiful and popular of the standard operas of the Mozartian school, repeats with amusing situations and French piquancy on an Italian theme. "Fra Diavolo" has never been done in Victoria before, as far as can be ascertained, but it is being continually sung in the great musical centres of Europe and occasionally is presented in the Metropolitan Opera House in New York City.

The overture, exquisitely charming in construction is unique because this very emotional score is written from start to finish in one key, an interesting fact for one who thoroughly knows music and one which will please those who like a concert of sweet sounds.

The box office will open to-morrow morning at the Royal Victoria Theatre and the steady mail order business done suggests well for two capacity audiences.

MISMANAGEMENT CREATES UNFORTUNATE SITUATION

Whether a child is mentally backward and, therefore, incapable of learning as rapidly as the average child, or whether she is uncontrolled because of poor management, it is not always easy to decide. Both conditions bring about somewhat the same results. Mrs. A. asks my opinion of an only child of three years: "This child is just beginning to talk, answers questions but does not ask them. She has no fear of her parents. Why should she fear them, Mrs. A., and just dares them to correct her. If they tell her they will get a switch, she tells them they will get a spanking. 'Do it now.' If she is put to bed for punishment she screams for hours. When her mother takes her visiting, she just tears the house up. If told not to walk in the water she deliberately chooses the deepest spot. At fifteen months if she fell asleep she could not pick herself up but had to be helped. Her parents have tried to explain to her and to do what was right."

CHILD MISUNDERSTOOD

The parents' efforts at management have shown no real understanding of the nature of a child this age, or how to get the right results. If she says, "Do it now," and "Let me see it," her speech is certainly as good as the average three-year-old. Rather than a physical inability to get up, her desire to be helped up when she fell might be a temper tantrum analogous to a child who grows angry at his toys and stands and screams at them. In a

According to the official report, the accident took place one and a half miles south of Cloverdale, near the little girl's home.

The car is said to have struck the child when she dashed across the road. She dodged a car going north on the highway and ran directly in front of the auto going south.

She was rushed to the Royal Columbian Hospital, but died shortly after her arrival.

PIONEER OF SEA ISLAND DIES

Vancouver, April 28.—Mrs. Ann MacDonald, aged seventy-two, widow of John MacDonald, pioneer farmer of Sea Island, died Sunday night at her home, 1091 West Sixty-fourth. On the death of her husband, which occurred a few days ago, she was left alone. A native of County Tyrone, Ireland, Mrs. MacDonald came to Victoria by way of New York and Seattle in 1881, one year before the completion of the C.P.R. Shortly after, she moved to New Westminster, residing there for several years. In 1885 she moved with her husband to Sea Island.

St. Columba W.A. Sponsoring Play To Aid Church

The regular monthly meeting of St. Columba's W.A. was held in Colquhoun Hall on Monday afternoon with ten members present. Mrs. Bennett opened the meeting with prayer, followed with Bible reading by Mrs. F. Comley. The treasurer gave a very satisfactory financial report of the recent sale of work. Mrs. Watling, junior superintendent, reported fourteen members and invited the seniors to a meeting on Thursday in Colquhoun Hall, when Mrs. Brooks diocesan superintendent, will be present to reorganize the juniors.

Final arrangements were made for the play, "The Arrival of Kitty," which will be put on by the Fairfield Players Club on May 11 at 8 o'clock in Strawberry Vale Hall. It is hoped the building will be packed, as the W.A. have decided to give their share of the proceeds to the rebuilding of St. Paul's Church, Nanaimo, the old one having been destroyed by fire last year. Mrs. Bennett and Mrs. Comley acted as tea hostesses. The next meeting will be held in Colquhoun Hall on May 25.

Teams Announced For Opening Amateur Ball Game Saturday

THE SPORTS MIRROR

Chicago Cubs Set Pace for Major League Ball Clubs.

Changed Conditions Greet Next Heavyweight Bout in Ohio.

Dempsey, Willard and Rickard Played Major Part in Last One.

Coming: Stribling-Schmeling Joust May Revive Boxing Game.

ROGERS HORNSBY, Chicago Cubs, set the hottest pace in either major league during the last week, last year's runners-up in the National League winning three of their four engagements. The team that was picked to fight it out with St. Louis for the league flag looked the part of a champion, scoring twenty-four runs to its opponents' thirteen and committing only two errors in the week ending Saturday. Hornsby himself was credited with the outstanding individual feat of the week when he hit three home runs against Pittsburgh Friday.

The champion Cards had the second best National League mark for the week, with two triumphs in three starts. The peculiar part of it was, however, they scored only seven runs in their opponents' eight. Philadelphia, winning three out of five, and Boston's rampant Braves, winning four out of seven, had the next best records for the week. The Pittsburgh Pirates set the low mark for the week when they managed to win only once in four starts. Brooklyn's Lucien Roberts had the most errors—ten.

Four American League clubs ran a dead heat for the week, each winning four and losing two. They were the champion Philadelphia Athletics, New York Yankees, Cleveland Indians and Detroit Tigers. By winning their last two starts against the Senators, the A's squared accounts with the team that has chosen them to the finish line last season, each with three victories up to the present.

Chicago's White Sox broke even for the period, winning two and losing a like number. The St. Louis Browns, who were going so badly the previous week, hit tough going and dropped four straight. The Yankees led the American League scoring parade for the week with thirty-seven runs. Cleveland made the most errors, ten, and Boston's pitchers permitted the most runs, forty-one.

Ohio is again to be the scene of a heavyweight championship fight, the first since Dempsey bounced Jess Willard around at Toledo, July 5, eleven years ago. Lots of changes in eleven years. Dempsey, a referee, is through with fighting. Willard a real estate operator in Los Angeles, is through with fighting, too. There will be no Tex Rickard to watch crowds at Cleveland on the night of July 3, and to exclaim, "Never seen nuthin' like it!"

Instead of the picturesque wooden octagon, filled with the rattle of the thousands of feet, a pompous bowl of steel and concrete will house the spectacle this year.

Instead of a lithe young tiger from Colorado and a giant from Kansas there will be a slim young Georgian pitted against the swarthy German champion who won the world title through a foul.

How different are the conditions, too. In that day, boxing was just on the threshold of a tremendous revival. Willard had won the title from Jack Johnson under a hot Havana sun. Dempsey, the Man Madder, had just begun to reveal the power of his terrific attack. The thousands of fight followers Dempsey was to thrill in his battles with Brennan, Firpo, Tunney and the others, were just beginning to sense that the brown batter at Toledo was one of the richest champions the prize ring had ever known.

Now boxing has fallen upon evil days. Questionable fights and an epidemic of fouls and setups have disgusted the fans who used to glory in Dempsey's greatness. Racketeers, and muscle-men have seized the game, twisted it to their own profitable designs and caused it to be looked upon in the light of a racket.

Much depends upon the fight at Cleveland. Schmeling and Stribling can make or break boxing by the conduct of the battle. If the affair is a frost, it will freeze the business of flustered stiff and cold. If it is a great fight, it will do much to bring boxing back.

Did you know that young Charley Wood of the Pittsburgh Pirates was striking out lots of the Chicago Cubs in a game the other day? After Hornsby had watched three swoop across the plate out of the clouds, and Hack Wilson had struck out, swinging at only one pitch, an official investigation was launched with the suspicion that perhaps Charley was using his own trick resin. Empires Ernie Quigley, Benji Reardon and Death Valley Scott examined the peculiar pellet Charley was chucking and they found it plain pine resin. O.K., let's get on with the game, but the inquiry must have rattled young Charley, for he put one into the groove for Hornsby next time the Rajah batted, and the same fly took him moved from the property.

A long snarl of an error, which gives rise to the reflection that you can't beat the Cubs by throwing home run balls to Hornsby.

Sons, Last Year's Champs, Will Trot Out Strong Line-up

Defending Champions Sign "Cab" Collins and Harry Downs to Fill Gaps; Oppose Eagles in Initial Battle of Season; Latter Will Trot Out Number of New Players; Cann and Cornwall Are Likely To Be Starting Pitchers; Hon W. A. MacKenzie to Pitch First Ball.

The resounding smack of the willow on horsehide will be heard again on Saturday afternoon at the Royal Athletic Park when the Victoria Senior Amateur Baseball League stages its opening game of the season. The fixture is scheduled to get under way promptly at 3 o'clock with the Sons of Canada, last year's champions, and the Eagles, doing the honors. The usual opening ceremonies have been arranged with Hon. W. A. MacKenzie, Minister of Mines, slated to pitch the first ball.

Navy Will Meet Hudson's Bay In Final For Shield

Wednesday League football teams will ring down the curtain on another season at the Royal Athletic Park to-morrow afternoon, when the Navy and Hudson's Bay meet in the final of the McKay Shield knockout competition. The match will commence at 2.45 o'clock with Johnson as referee.

The Navy have won every trophy in the mid-league so far and victory to-morrow will give them a clean sweep.

Mrs. Philbrick and Mrs. M. Paterson Card 89's in Colwood Club Championship

Mrs. Sayward-Wilson in Third Place With 90; Match Play Starts To-day

Mrs. B. R. Philbrick, defending champion, and Mrs. M. Paterson, who were going so badly the previous week, hit tough going and dropped four straight. The Yankees led the American League scoring parade for the week with thirty-seven runs. Cleveland made the most errors, ten, and Boston's pitchers permitted the most runs, forty-one.

Right on the heels of the two leaders and in third position, was Mrs. Sayward-Wilson with an even 90. Mrs. Parry and Miss P. Hogan were next in line with 92.

All the favored players qualified and some keen competition is looked for before a new champion is crowned. In the opening round of match play to-day Mrs. Philbrick meets Mrs. Macfarlane and Mrs. Paterson will meet Mrs. Rhodes.

RUTH HOPES TO RETURN SUNDAY

Home Run Hitter Recovering Quickly From Leg Injury; Must Take It Easy

New York, April 28.—Babe Ruth, the battered hambo, has given up all hope of being able to play against the Philadelphia Athletics in the three-game series starting here Thursday, but is confident his injured leg will have improved sufficiently for him to line up against the Boston Red Sox on Sunday.

It was in a game with the Red Sox just a week ago that the Yankee cloutier received the jolt that sent him to the hospital.

Artie McGovern, Ruth's trainer, started working on the big fellow's bruised thigh yesterday and expressed confidence that he would be able to move from the property.

"Probably he will have to take it easy for a time," said McGovern. "It might be several weeks before he is fully recovered."

Five Bouts on Programme to Be Offered at Tillicum Gym Saturday Night

After a lapse of many months boxing will make its return to Victoria on Saturday evening at the Tillicum gymnasium, when a card is presented by the Central Boxing Club. Five bouts are being offered, and lots of action is expected.

In the six-round main event Teddy Beale, local fireman, has been matched with K.O. Krog, Prince George. The interior fighter has engaged in sixteen fights since starting his career, winning fourteen, while two were draws.

In the semi-wind-up, Bill Marshall, Vancouver, will meet Wing May, Victoria's fighting Chinaman. These lads will go over the six-round route and plenty of action is promised, as both are known to mix it freely. Marshall hails from Australia, and has been on the mainland a few weeks getting into shape.

Phil Perkins Sets Course Record To Win Medal Honors

Hot Springs, Va., April 28.—Playing in the face of a strong wind which swept the course throughout the day, T. Phil Perkins, former British amateur champion, won medal honors in the qualifying round of the Old Dominion golf tournament here over the exacting Canadara course yesterday with record-breaking score of 72.

Perkins was the one fall guy in the tournament to succumb to an alpine whirl.

Approximately 15,000 persons, including Governor Henry C. Clift, attended the benefit.

Jim Londos Told He Must Battle Lewis

Eastern Claimant of World Heavyweight Wrestling Championship Given Ten Days in Which to Sign for Match With "Strangler," Recent Winner Over Don George; Lewis Posts $5,000 as Forfeit for Match; N.B.A. Will Bill Matches as Exhibition If Londos Fails to Sign Up.

Chicago, April 28.—Unless Jimmy Londos, one of the leading claimants to the heavyweight wrestling championship signs within ten days to meet Ed "Strangler" Lewis, rival titleholder, wrestling matches will have to be billed as "exhibitions" instead of "contests."

Lewis and his manager, Billy Sandow, yesterday posted a check for $5,000 with the Illinois State Athletic Commission, as a forfeit for a match with Londos to clear up the championship situation. Ed White, manager of Londos, indicated he would not consent to such a match, causing General John V. Cline, chairman of the Illinois Commission, and president of the National Boxing Association, to state that wrestling would suffer a change of status unless the match is held somewhere.

General Cline also said member states of the N.B.A. would be asked to take the same action concerning the grappling game.

Seattle, April 28.—Des Anderson, Seattle, and Robin Reed, Reedsport, Ore., middleweights, went eight ten-minute rounds to a draw in the main event of a wrestling card here yesterday evening.

Anderson won a fall with a series of whip wristlocks in the second round. Reed evaded matters with a fall in the fourth with a reverse headlock.

Milwaukee, Wis., April 28.—Gus Sonnenberg, heavyweight wrestler, and former claimant to the world title, yesterday evening defeated Ernie Scarpaga, Milwaukee, by taking two out of three falls.

Don Lurik, Chicago, defeated Bull Montana, Hollywood, with a body scissor.

Canada Has Made Application For Olympics in 1940

Hamilton, April 28.—M. M. Robinson, honorary secretary of the Canadian Olympic committee, announced yesterday that formal application, on behalf of Canada, for the 1940 Olympic games had been made through Sir George McFarlan Brown and James G. MacKay, Canadian representatives of the International Olympic committee. The formal request was placed before the international committee at the meeting in Barcelona last week. At that time Canada voted in favor of Berlin for the 1936 games.

Boston Braves Are Almost Perfect To Top National Loop

Club Figured to Finish in Second Division Getting Fine Pitching, Fielding Almost Perfectly and Hitting in Pinches; "Socks" Siebold Shuts Out Phillies 2 to 0 Yesterday; Pittsburgh Takes Second Straight From St. Louis; Washington Senators Beat New York in Twelve-inning Struggle.

Two weeks have sailed by since opening day, and the Boston Braves are out in front in the National League. Generally picked to finish somewhere down in the second division, they are getting consistently great pitching, are fielding almost perfectly and hitting in the pinches.

By shutting out the Phillies 2 to 0 yesterday, the Braves jumped to first place with a full game lead over the St. Louis Cardinals, who dropped another to Pittsburgh, 5 to 3.

Old "Socks" Siebold, who could do no better than break even in thirty-two games last season, turned in his third straight victory and his second shutout in a row, allowing the Phils four scattered hits. Not only that, he singled in the third and scored what proved the winning run on Rabbit Maranville's single.

Four runs off Phil Rhee in the first inning proved sufficient to give the Pirates their second straight over the champion Cardinals.

VERGEZ STARS

Johnny Vergez, rookie third sacker, supplied the chief fireworks as the New York Giants greeted their neighbors, the Robins, with an 8 to 3 thumping. Vergez cracked his second home run of the year a double and single.

Washington and New York, playing the day's only American League game, struggled through twelve frames before the Senators finally won, 9 to 6. It marked the Yankees' third straight reverse. Weiner, third Yankee moundman, forced across the winning run when he crashed Sam Rice in the ribs with the bases filled.

Six other teams of the junior circuit were stopped by the cold wave, as were the Cubs and Reds in the National.

TWO "CHAMPS" TO RULE OVER BIG FELLOWS

Johnston Announces Carnera and Sharkey Will Fight For Heavyweight Title

Principals Glare at Each Other at Elaborate Luncheon; Dukes Expected to Agree

New York, April 28.—The United States is due to outfit itself in the crowning of two "recognized" world heavyweight boxing champions.

The country has boasted at least one heavy king almost since it was a country, but only the most optimistic ever dreamed of possessing a pair. Their vision and foresight at last is to be rewarded.

Jimmy Johnston, supper Brooklyn promoter, yesterday gathered all the boys in the same room and announced, very formally, that Jack Sharkey and Primo Carnera had signed for a fifteen-round championship engagement the night of June 10 at Ebbets Field.

That makes it a pair, as Max Schmeling and Young Stribling already were under contract to clash at Cleveland July 8 for the world title. There is, technically speaking, only one available heavyweight title, but that is beside the question. Four of them are going to fight for it just the same.

Both Sharkey and Carnera advanced yesterday's gathering here. There was an elaborate luncheon, photographers took pictures of all concerned and the whole thing amounted to the big time. The two gladiators sat across the board and glared at each other between forks.

KILHAM TEAM IN TOP PLACE

Lead Booster Team Division of Northwest Bowling Congress With 2410

Portland, Ore., April 28.—The Kilham Stationery and Printing Company's five-man team went into the lead in the booster division of the Northwest International Bowling Congress tournament here yesterday evening with a 2,410 total.

The Brunswick Balke Collender team, Portland, was in second place with 2,375. The Eldorado cigar five, Portland, which had held the lead in that division since the tournament opened last Friday, was in third place with 2,318.

Redness, Seattle, took the lead yesterday in the commercial singles with 606. Kennedy, Vancouver, B.C., was second with 586, while Mann, Seattle, was third with 567.

Lingenfelter, Seattle, held a high score of 1,755 in the commercial all-events, with Black, Vancouver, 1,702. Second, with 1,700. Lingenfelter and Whittney, Seattle, are at the top of the commercial "doubles" list with 1,131. Ross and Eads, Klamath Falls, are second with 1,144, and Paulding and Daws, Rose, Washington, B.C., have 1,060 for third place.

Helene Madison Equals a Record

Virginia, Minn., April 28.—Helene Madison, of Seattle, holder of many world swimming records, did the unexpected here yesterday evening when she swam an exhibition of the 100-yard freestyle event and did not break a record.

She did equal the existing world record, however, held by herself.

Grads will carry a one-point advantage into the second game Wednesday as they emerged victorious over the local varsity by an 18 to 17 score.

EQUIPOISE IS BETTER

Favorite For Preakness and Kentucky Derby Recovers From Ailment

Havre de Grace, Md., April 23.—Equipoise, early favorite for the Kentucky Derby and the Preakness, was pronounced completely recovered yesterday from the ailment blamed for his startling defeat Saturday.

Freddie Hopkins, Cornellius Vanderbilt Whitney's trainer, who has had charge of the colt, America's leading money winner, last year, expressed fear his charge might not be ready for the $50,000 preakness May 9 at Pimlico, but Dr. Henry J. McCarthy, veterinarian for the Maryland tracks, said yesterday Equipoise was not thrown out of training.

The veterinarian blamed a slight kidney ailment for the poor showing of the son of Synanon in Saturday's race here, when heavily backed, he ran last in a six-horse race.

The Whitney ace was given a slow two-mile gallop, and to-day will be taken to Pimlico.

SPORTS

JIMMY THOMPSON

WINS BY A CIGAR

Just try to make an athlete break the laws of training, that is, one who has ambitions on some crown or title. Harold Webster, now of the Hamilton Olympic Club, started out on his career by breaking every training rule that existed. Harold's first attempt was at marathon running. He apparently was just in the game for the sport of the thing and paid little attention to the rules of training and was enjoying himself on his first venture in the sport field. This particular race took place in Guelph about six years ago. At the finish Webster came plodding in among the also rans and to the consternation of judges and spectators he was joyfully puffing a large cigar.

Winnipeg Shorts Cover On Anti-pool Decision

Wheat closed fractionally higher in Winnipeg and Chicago to-day, despite the erratic stock market. John Barrett was reported the heavy buyer in Chicago. Chicago to-day reported commission houses active on both sides of the market. Weather in Western Canada was reported fair and mild for to-day and Wednesday, with no rain reported.

Broomhall to-day reported the international wheat market as steadier, owing to indications that Germany may buy more freely and on the news of the increase of 5 per cent additional imports to be permitted to be ground by French mills. Stocks in Europe are generally small and active, especially from the continent, indicate that much foreign wheat is wanted.

"We have it on good authority that the German government will probably reduce the import duty on wheat, which is now 25 marks per 100 kilos, or $1.62 per bushel shortly, but nothing definite will be out until Thursday. "Foreign crop summary is generally favorable except in Russia, where weather is warm and some progress is now being made in seeding, but it is still very backward.

"One of the effects of heavy selling, which has been in evidence in all grains and has carried them down to new low levels has been materially to strengthen the technical position." The Chicago Tribune to-day says.

"There has been considerable short covering at Winnipeg on the news that the Saskatchewan Supreme Court had held the 100 per cent provincial wheat pool proposition unconstitutional."

WINNIPEG

(By Logan & Bryan) Winnipeg, April 28.—Wheat: The wheat market continued nervous and somewhat erratic, but prices were mostly higher than the previous close, although a dip around mid-season carried prices 1/2 under the close of last night. Early prices about 1/2 cents higher with fair buying by seaboard houses but after this demand was satisfied the market eased off about 1/2 cent, but in the final stages came back, establishing new highs for the day with good buying again by seaboard interests. There was considerable spreading going on to-day, selling May and buying deferred futures, the latter showing a little more strength than the nearby. There was good export business.

Only a moderate demand for cash wheat, there was not pressing and spreads were unchanged. There was no change in the flour situation. Broomhall reported a better United Kingdom and continental demand for wheat, with forecasts of a likely reduction in the German import duty while the French Government is allowing millers to use a further five per cent of foreign wheat in their grindings making a total of 25 per cent now permissible.

There has been no molasses over spring wheat territory and reports are coming in of farmers waiting for rains before sowing and there are also many reports of cutworms being plentiful but these conditions are being ignored so far but will probably attract a little more attention shortly. Winnipeg closed 1/2 to 1 1/2 higher.

BABSON FEARS HINDSIGHT NOW BLOCKING FORESIGHT

New York, April 28.—Roger Babson, the economist, under the heading of "Where investors are erring—hindsight is blocking foresight," to-day says:

"In judging stock market values, great weight is being placed on first quarter earnings, past business activity and dividend cuts. This is all water over the dam.

"For many weeks, we have been advising investors that earnings would be at an unusually low ebb, the general consequence of corporations adjusting operations to reduced levels of purchasing power. We also pointed out that this period of lean profits will extend at least through the first half of the year. In the meantime, however, business can be starting on a moderate up-grade.

"The unreasoning black pessimism of the last 1930 has again returned. Business has not shot forward as so many had hoped, but, as we have been saying, rapid recovery is unwarranted. Stocks have also been going through a disappointing period, reflecting depressed feelings significant of these conditions. Investors are looking back into the first quarter gloom rather than ahead to gradual business convalescence.

"To see investment opportunities—don't follow the crowd in to-day's mental slump."

MONTREAL LIST TURNS UPWARD BEFORE CLOSE

By Logan & Bryan Montreal, April 28.—Rallying tendencies manifested themselves in Wall Street during afternoon and the improvement was quickly translated in the Canadian stock markets and higher prices prevailed in most directions. Stocks were not of a broad nature, but nevertheless served as some encouragement to the general market following public interest in stock from a constructive viewpoint. Whether the decline in price has been stayed is still problematical.

Among the leaders, Montreal Power was outstanding and chalked up a net gain of a point, when it closed at 57. Shawinigan showed firmness at 49. Quebec Power at 41 and Brasel at 18 1/2. Bell Telephone slackened still further, however, touching 143 at the close, while Power Corporation after dipping to 54 improved a small fraction.

In the metals group, the tone was of mixed character with the gold stock again meeting accumulation buying and the base metal issues ruling rather steadier.

The paper group continued on the easy side, most values being lower. In the cotton group, Dominion Textile was a weak feature, slipping back to 75, off two and one-half points. In the oil, the tone was steady to somewhat firmer, while in specialties and distilleries some small improvement was noted.

It is still too early to say that this afternoon's improved tone in market prices marks the beginning of a recovery, but it does depend, however, upon events during the next few days, especially, as pertaining to Wall Street.

(By Logan & Bryan) Montreal, April 28.—Wheat: Prices for wheat showed a little firmness at times, but on the bulge there was some selling and the market closed around yesterday's finish. The foreign news was a little encouraging with France increasing the amount of foreign wheat permissible in milling to 25 per cent, and with prospects for a reduction in the German duty on wheat. Broomhall also said that the general European demand for wheat was good, with Oriental buyers also continuing heavy. Some No. 1 hard winter wheat was reported worked from the Gulf yesterday at 74 1/2 c.f. While England is buying Argentine wheat at 62 1/2 c.f.

Donovan finds farm and country mills stocks in the southwest extremely light, thinks the bulk of so called invisible supply will be cleaned out by June 1, which will make plenty of storage room available for the new crop wheat, which he said promises to be early, with excellent prospect. As dry weather still prevails over the spring wheat belt, feel that somewhere around this level wheat has intrinsic merit. Broomhall reported a demand in world stocks of 8,250,000 bushels.

Corporation Report With All-most Zero Earnings Climaxes Bear Move

Industrial Averages Break 5 Points Straight to New Low at 144.50

Illinois Central Cuts Dividend to $4 a Year; Studebaker Pays Regular

At the close of the market this afternoon, the Dow Jones average of thirty industrial stocks stood at 144.50, off 1.33 points for the day; for twenty years at 25.11, off 0.24 points; and for twenty utilities, 53.85, off 0.07 points.

Story of to-day's market is told by the fluctuations throughout the session of the Dow Jones industrial average as follows:

10.30 a.m.—149.33, off 0.43.
12.30 noon—145.14, off 4.64.
2.30 p.m.—140.08, off 0.70.
3.30 p.m.—147.95, off 1.83.

With a culmination of bad news, the stock market to-day broke five points in rapid order, setting a new record low for the industrial averages at 144.52, which Wall Street hopes will prove to be the low for a while, at least.

Then the market rallied to regain most of its loss for the day.

The bearish news which eliminated all support from the market of awhile was featured by these items:

1.—U.S. Steel Corporation report showing earnings for the first quarter of $6,765,037, equal after the preferred to only five cents a share on the 6,600,000 common shares. Steel directors, however, declared the regular quarterly dividend of $1.75 a share on the common as the corporation's contribution to re-establishing general confidence.

2.—Directors of Illinois Central Railroad reduced the annual dividend basis to $4 a share from the 7 previously paid by declaring a quarterly payment of $1 a share.

3.—Union Carbide earnings statement was bearish, showing a balance of 51 cents a share, against dividend requirements of 65 cents a share for the period.

When the bear news was out, the shorts covered.

Studebaker directors met and decided to reduce the dividend at the rate of $1.50 a share a year.

An upturn in the steel stock late in to-day's session of the stock market failed to turn the receding tide of share values, and the markets closed with numerous small losses, and a few ranging from 3 to 7 points.

The market was a repetition of yesterday's on a smaller scale. The list sold off substantially during the earlier hours, although during the latter part of the session, short covering, particularly in the steel issues, caused a temporary recovery in the last hour, but the upturn only attracted fresh selling in the last few minutes. Chemicals were distinctly weak at the finish.

Refrigerator stocks had a momentary upturn, apparently reflecting the fact that the opposition to the Youngstown merger will be withdrawn.

Shale, utilities and oils held up well in the late dealing, losing more than four points.

Allied Chemical dropped 10, recovered 5, then declined to close off 7.

Trans-America was a weak feature for a time, declining more than 2 points to a new low at 7 1/2, but later recovering to 8 1/2.

Leaves closing 2 to 3 lower included Inland Steel, Columbian Carbon, Corn Products, Eastman, Du Pont, General American Truck and McKesson, A. C. Nielsen, and others.

5-CENT DIVIDEND ON MERCURY OIL PUTS STOCK UP

Canadian Press Vancouver, April 28.—Announcement of a dividend of 5 cents a share on the 5,000,000 shares outstanding by Mercury Oil Limited caused a decided flurry in the stock to-day during the forenoon session of the Vancouver Stock Exchange. The stock sold between 18 and 19 in fairly heavy volume.

According to the official announcement, confirming the unofficial news some days ago, the dividend will be paid to shareholders at 12:00 Meridian on April 29, at a rate of 5 cents a share, and will be disbursed July 2, involving about $150,000.

Home Oil dropped to a new low of 60 to-day. A. P. Consolidated stood at 20 and 23 1/2, and Amalgamated and Crown's Nest held at 1 1/2 and 8, respectively.

There were no changes of importance in the mining list, where stock prices held fairly well all morning. The leaders were at about the same levels as on recent days and smaller price stocks changed hands at unaltered prices. The mining market, particularly where stock prices are concerned, seems firm and offerings are taken up quickly around current levels.

N. Y. Market Analysis

(By Logan and Bryan)
New York, April 28.—Whitney of the Wall Street Financial Bureau says:

"While yesterday presented us with another instance of the internal troubles the 'street' is engaged in, both of these problems were essentially carried over from last year and have little connection with the recent decline in stocks which I believe is not creating any new ones at all comparable to those we have already seen. In addition to this, I understand the banking fraternity has reached an agreement to withhold for the time being any further liquidation for the simple reason that large shorts are too able to sense the stocks being liquidated and by operations designed against them, defeat any of the advantages to be gained by selling the stocks. In this way I think the vicious circle has been more or less broken to the extent that they will see a moderate degree of momentum on the up side, even if it waits for another day."

"The 'street' troubles have of course entirely obscured the fact that business developments are not half bad, and that there is little doubt that, without showing any marked improvement, it has made its turn and is preserving the gains recorded since last December. This simply means that a lot of stocks have struck their individual bottoms, and that, in the absence of any 'special' situations, there is not the slightest reason why they should go any lower. In addition to this, I think that beyond the steel meeting the feature to-day, the balance of the week will show some more or less favorable local developments in the line of an actual or practically decided cut in the discount rate to 1 1/2 per cent and the payment of some regular dividends, especially in the case of International Telephone and U.S. Steel. In connection with the steel meeting the feature pointed out here last Saturday may well be borne in mind, to the extent that poor earnings by no means entail a reduced dividend, the company having demonstrated in a similar period ten years ago that they are perfectly willing to dip into surplus for two or three dividends before lowering the rate."

"The immediate outlook, therefore, is that we will have at least a letup of the persistent type of liquidation that has characterized the recent past and that with a possible, but not entirely probable day of hesitation to-day, the rest of the week, generally speaking, will show a fairly substantial improvement in the market."

BANKERS CUT RATES AGAIN

New York, April 28.—For the second time in five days, rates on bankers' acceptances were reduced to-day by 1/4 of 1 per cent. The reduction of bid and asked rates on all maturities brought them down to the all-time low level for the New York Bill Market established in February. Boston dealers made similar reductions.

It was reported in financial circles that the New York Federal Reserve Bank, which took the decision to raise last week and reduced its buying rate, had cut its buying rate on bills up to forty-five days maturity 1/4 of 1 per cent to 1 1/2 per cent.

The new dealers rates are: Thirty to ninety days, 1 1/2 bid, 1 3/4 asked; 120 days, 1 1/2 bid, 1 3/4 asked; 180 and 270 days, 1 1/2 bid, 1 3/4 asked.

MUTUAL LIFE BUSINESS PASSES HALF BILLION MARK

The monthly statement of the Mutual Life Assurance Company of Canada shows that at the end of March business in force exceeds $501,000,000.

A comparison of the returns of the first quarter of 1931 with those of 1930 reveals that new paid business is being maintained at practically last year's level, and that net lapses are slightly less this year than for the same period of 1930. There is also a noticeable drop in the rate of mortality of the company.

Industrialists Of Britain Come On Goodwill Tour

Montreal, April 28.—Visiting Canada, "with a view of gaining a better understanding of the Dominion's position, aspiration and policy while at the same time assuring Canadian industrialists of the federal desire to co-operate in making Canada and the Empire more prosperous," a trade mission sent from Great Britain by the Federation of British Industries arrived here over the weekend.

The party is headed by Colonel Sir James Lithgow, president; Sir Arthur Duckman, president of the federation and Mr. Mackenzie, a permanent official of the organization particularly associated with Empire trade.

A statement was issued by the party shortly after their arrival, in which they summed up their plans for their transatlantic tour, the itinerary of which has not yet been announced, but will probably be decided following a conference here to-morrow.

Coming to Canada at the invitation of Hon. J. G. Macdonald, Minister of Trade and Commerce, these three industrialists intend to study economic conditions with the full co-operation of Mr. Stevens' department and leading business men. They are expected to have an interview with Premier R. B. Bennett before returning to England.

UNEMPLOYMENT PROBLEM SAID TO BE EASING

Hamilton, Ont., April 28.—"In Canada the unemployment problem is diminishing," declared Senator Gordon Robertson, federal Minister of Labor, addressing the Hamilton Chamber of Commerce at the annual meeting yesterday evening.

"We have experienced the most distressing winter in many years, but we emerge into the sunlight of hope at the beginning of another season, and it is within the realm of reason to say that before the snow falls again our worries will have largely disappeared," he said.

It was the policy of the government, he said, to provide the unemployed with work, and he believed that the government was doing its best to provide the unemployed with work, and he believed that the government was doing its best to provide the unemployed with work.

Banker Gloomy On British Outlook

Montreal, April 28.—British opinion was in favor of closer economic co-operation within the Empire and looked for achievements at the forthcoming Imperial Economic Conference at Ottawa, but unless the present government in Britain changed its policy it would have little with which to bargain with the Dominions, Sir Frederick Williams-Taylor, vice-president of the Bank of Montreal with headquarters in London, declared on his arrival here on one of his periodic visits to Canada.

Conditions in Britain, he said, were discouraging, but not desperate. With trade still falling off, idle millions under the "soporific influence of the dole," huge budget deficits, "party or personal ambitions prevail" over establishment of a constructive policy calculated to pull the Motherland from the rut, he went on.

FALSE TEETH ARE A GREAT INVENTION KEEP YOUR OWN AS LONG AS YOU CAN

False teeth are worn in thousands of mouths today because these simple rules of health care almost unknown a few years ago

Ten years too late most people seek Protection

The greatest mistake you can make is to wait until gums are swollen and spongy before you begin to think of pyorrhea. A famous British doctor states that many people have this disease for ten years before the symptoms appear.

And pyorrhea is to blame for half of all adult teeth extracted. Protect yourself now from this disease of neglect. You should, of course, see your dentist twice a year.

And, in addition, keep teeth clean—massage the gums—with Forhan's, the dentist's dentifrice. It was originated by R. J. Forhan, D. D. S., a specialist in pyorrhea.

Brush your teeth at least twice a day with Forhan's, for it is a mild, safe, scientifically correct cleanser, which restores your teeth to their natural gleaming beauty.

At the same time, use Forhan's for massage (full instructions with every tube). It is specially prepared to tone up the gums when applied with gentle rubbing, and to awaken sluggish circulation. The health of the gums depends on this circulation. Only when they are firm and strong can they hope to resist infections which bring such trouble to almost every adult later in life.

Here, then, is double protection in Forhan's—a protection which every member of the family should have. Adopt Forhan's as your dentifrice; it comes in two sizes, 35c and 60c—just a few cents per tube more than ordinary toothpaste, and exceedingly well worth it. Forhan's Ltd., Montreal.

GRADED BEEF DEMAND GROWS

Canadian Press
Ottawa, April 28.—The growing consumption of government graded beef is largely responsible for whatever firmness there is to consumer demand in the market for cattle, the weekly livestock report of the department of agriculture livestock branch states.

During March the demand increased over February of 200,000 pounds, and at present more than 1,200,000 pounds of graded and branded beef, the good and choice qualities of which are guaranteed to the public, are being sold throughout the Dominion, the report continues.

The demand for the rank and file of cattle offered at public stockyards is rather narrow and it is reported that packers' coolers and butchers' refrigerators are pretty full. There was a fair movement of cattle for export to Great Britain during the week, and this was a helpful factor in an indifferent market. Practically all stockyard business during the week showed prices 25 to 50 cents weaker.

Murder Backstairs

CHAPTER XXXIII

"Please tell me frankly what you are thinking, Mrs. Lambert," Dundee urged gently.

The social secretary got control of herself with an obvious effort. She even managed to smile slightly.

"You startled me," she confessed. "I know how Seymour—Mr. Crosby—treasured that miniature of Phyllis. It is an exquisite thing, a remarkable likeness of one of the most beautiful girls I ever saw. But as you said, it is a thing a burglar could not sell, without betraying himself. It seemed absurd to me that a burglar should steal it."

"To me, too," Dundee assured her quickly. "But, please, Mrs. Lambert—"

"I know!" Glig interrupted, striking her small brown hands together. "Everyone says Johnson looked like a gentleman, and I'm here to tell you he had S. A. plus—in a deadly, quiet sort of way, if you know what I mean. Now, look! Doris halfway recognized him. Doris was Phyllis Crosby's maid, Johnson, or whatever his real name is, steals a miniature of Phyllis, which he can't sell, and which, therefore, he wants for his own sake. I'll bet my new golf clubs it was Johnson's showing up here as a servant that threw Doris off the track, so she couldn't remember where she'd seen him before."

"Hush, Glig! You're being ridiculous!" Mrs. Lambert commanded sternly, but that her face had gone ghostly pale.

"I'm not either being ridiculous!" Glig protested. "I heard that and Abbie rowing about Mr. Crosby yesterday afternoon, and said he was a wife-killer. Then this morning I asked Wicket how Mrs. Crosby died, and he said she committed suicide in London by jumping off a roof. He said Doris saw her do it, and that Mr. Crosby absolutely did not throw his wife over the railing, or push her, or anything like that. Now, I think this Johnson crook is back of it all! Don't you see—"

"Glig, you must stop!" Mrs. Lambert cried despairingly. "If you don't mind too much Mrs. Lambert, I'd rather hear Glig's theory. Dundee interposed quietly but firmly.

"Wouldn't I make a swell detective, Bonnie Dundee?" Glig exclaimed. "Well, this is the way I do it out: Johnson was a 'gentleman crook,' playing the night clubs in New York, or something like that. He meets Phyllis Crosby or Phyllis Benham, as she was then. She falls for him hard, doesn't dream he's a crook. They have a hectic love affair, and poor little Doris catches a glimpse of him—just once, maybe, because Phyllis is meeting him secretly. Then somehow she finds out he's a crook and ditches him, and he's sore, of course. Pretty soon she marries Mr. Crosby and Johnson keeps bobbing up to blackmail her. Probably he had letters or something proving they had been lovers."

"Please make her stop, Mr. Dundee!" Mrs. Lambert implored. "She can't realize what she's saying. I was Phyllis Crosby's best friend—"

"That's enough, Glig," Dundee agreed, but his smile at the excited girl had admiration and respect in it. Turning to Mrs. Lambert he asked gently: "Were you in Mrs. Crosby's confidence, Mrs. Lambert?"

"I was. We were devoted friends, in spite of the difference in our ages," Mrs. Lambert replied, her pale lips trembling.

"You were visiting her at the time of her death?"

"Yes, Seymour wrote me—I was at Biarritz—that Phyllis was not well, and inclined to be morbid and hysterical."

"I bet she was going to have a baby!" Glig cut in excitedly.

"Mrs. Lambert flushed. 'She was, I believe, then and still believe that her morbidness and her suicide were due to her condition. At Seymour's request, I went to London to stay with Phyllis as long as she needed me.'"

"Did she tell you why she was unhappy, Mrs. Lambert?" Dundee asked.

"I must refuse to answer," Mrs. Lambert hesitated. "I have a great deal of time together. Doris was with Phyllis even more than I was, Doris serving them as lady's maid in the capacity of nurse than as lady's maid."

"It is quite possible then that Doris was wholly in Mrs. Crosby's confidence," Dundee persisted.

"I know," Mrs. Lambert said, "I feel sure there was nothing to confide in." Mrs. Lambert, forgive me for what must seem like idle curiosity to you, but—would you say Mr. and Mrs. Crosby were happily married? That they loved each other?"

"Yes, Seymour loved Phyllis deeply and truly and tenderly, and Phyllis adored her husband."

"And yet—Phyllis Crosby committed suicide," Dundee reminded her gently.

Crosby—to bring that missing link to light."

Mrs. Lambert was silent for a long time, her eyes closed, her trembling lower lip caught between her teeth. Impulsively, Glig scrambled from the ottoman into the white-haired woman's lap and laid her head confidently, like a child, against her breast. Mrs. Lambert hesitated for a moment, then her arms went convulsively about the small body.

Her eyes were misty with tears when she lifted them to Dundee, and began to talk in a low, unsteady voice:

"At dinner that Sunday evening—"

"—the sixth of May—Phyllis seemed more ill and hysterical than usual. She ate nothing, and finally went to her room, locking the door. Doris was with her, and I felt it would be useless to intrude until the poor child felt better. Seymour and I talked and read in the drawing-room. He asked me again if I knew of any reason for Phyllis's unhappiness if he had unconsciously hurt her in any way. I reassured him, and he spoke of how glad he would be when the child was born and Phyllis was her own happy self again."

"Was Mr. Crosby reading a book of poems?" Dundee interrupted.

"Why, no! He was reading a novel, or rather, trying to read. About 10 o'clock I excused myself to go to bed, and on my way to my room I knocked at Phyllis's door, to bid her good night. Doris answered, saying Phyllis was not there, that she thought she was in the drawing-room with Mr. Crosby and me. I became slightly alarmed, then remembered that Phyllis was waiting on the roof of the apartment hotel where they lived. And there I found her."

"Alone?" Dundee asked quickly.

"Quite alone. The roof could be used by any tenants of the building, of course, but there was no one at all but Phyllis when I found her."

"Dundee corrected her. "I saw no one," Mrs. Lambert amended coldly. "Naturally I did not search the roof. I was interested only in Phyllis. I found her seated on a stone bench near the coping which surrounded the roof. She was weeping quietly, and I soothed her as best I could."

"You asked her what was wrong?"

"Of course, but she just shook her head. Finally she began to laugh hysterically at herself, called herself a little fool for behaving as she was doing, and asked me to go down and send Seymour up to her. She said she had something to tell him."

"She did not tell you what it was?"

"No. There was no need. I knew what was wrong, or believed I did. 'Simply that, she was ill and hysterical, because of her condition.' There was the faintest hesitation; then: 'Yes, I can give you no other reason whatsoever.'"

"Mrs. Lambert, did Phyllis threaten to commit suicide?"

"Certainly not, or I should not have left her alone for a moment!" Mrs. Lambert replied indignantly. "I went to give the message to Seymour, and he was delighted. He believed the bad times were over. Then I immediately went to Phyllis's room and asked Doris to take up a wrap to her mistress, since it was turning quite cold, then went to my own room and was undressing for bed when I became aware of a commotion in the street below. I was trying to see what the matter was, when Dundee came running into my room, saying that—that—"

"Yes, Mrs. Lambert, Dundee said gently, as the woman began to weep silently, the tears running down her white cheeks. 'Will you tell me now if Doris ever—then or later—confided her suspicions to you, regarding the real cause for Phyllis Crosby's suicide?'"

What Women Need is an Efficiency Expert to Tell Them How to Run Their Families—Will Widow or Spinster Make Better Stepmother?

DEAR MISS DIX—The value of the efficiency expert, who is called in to diagnose the cause when a business gets sick, has been proven beyond the shadow of a doubt. Why don't women have something of the same sort? Why do they not have an efficiency and budget expert to go from house to house, look in the back yard, cellar, garbage can and closets so she can tell the domestic women where the waste in their households was located, how to improve their conditions and save money? She might criticize their deficiency in a diplomatic way. Show them how to improve their housekeeping, how to take better care of their children, etc. She could show the domestic woman how she could have more money or make the amount she now has last longer. How to have a stock pot instead of a garbage can. It seems to me that a visiting female domestic efficiency expert might fill a long-felt want with women and do a lot to promote domestic peace and happiness. S. P. S.

ANSWER:

That's a grand idea, Mr. S. P. S., and I am glad to push it along. For the trouble with practically all the women who waste their money and poison their families with bad cooking is ignorance. They have never been trained for their jobs and so they ruin their husbands with their extravagance and make the sort of sloppy homes that send their husbands and children to the street to find some place of comfort.

And the main reason that women hate housework is because they don't know how to do it. We all have the pride of craftsmanship and enjoy doing the thing that we do expertly and for which we are applauded by our fellow creatures. The opera singer adores singing. The famous writer can't be kept from her typewriter. The successful business woman thinks in terms of trade. The woman whose dresses are artistic creations enjoys sewing. The woman who is a marvelous cook delights in making her pies and bread.

It is the women who are bunglers who hate their work. It is the woman whose house is always messy who tells you that she hates domesticity. It is the woman whose food would kill an ostrich who loathes the kitchen. Teach women how to systematize their housekeeping and do it with the least possible energy. Teach them how to cook and you will have women who glorify housekeeping and get real pleasure out of making homes.

It is a great idea this of having a female efficiency expert, and there would be no end to her usefulness. Suppose, for instance, her functions would include keeping an eye on the way her patrons dressed and telling women what clothes to buy. Women waste millions of dollars every year by buying the wrong things. Hats that are misadventures and dresses that are misfortunes. Things that looked all right in the shops and look all wrong at home. Colors that swear at everything else in their owner's wardrobes. Styles that bring out all of their worst points.

Many a woman could look like a daily hint from Paris if only the money, that she throws away on buying bargains that she can never use was spent in purchasing just the clothes that her type demands. Think how our streets would be beautified if only stout ladies could be kept out of plaids and stringy ones out of stripes; if hard-featured women were forcibly prevented from buying knobby hats and pug-nosed ones from purchasing hats that turned up in the front. A shopping expert would be more than a convenience. She would be a godsend.

And suppose the efficiency expert, in addition to peering into garbage cans, could take a look in the skeleton closet and point out to wives how they were wasting their happiness in worrying over the trivial faults of their husbands and how they were scrapping their happiness by nagging and fault-finding and a hundred little errors they had fallen into without even knowing it.

And perhaps the efficiency expert might show mothers how they were bringing on trouble for themselves by spoiling their children and how if they raised little Johnny and Mary to be selfish and uncontrolled they were bound to grow up into sons and daughters who break their parents' hearts.

Oh, there would be plenty of work for the efficiency expert and she is badly needed. DOROTHY DIX.

DEAR MISS DIX—I am a widow with children. There is a widow with children that I could marry. Also there is an unmarried woman. Which would make the best wife, the widow or the spinster? MR. X.

ANSWER:

Certainly there is no reason why a widower should not marry again, and every reason why he should if he can find a suitable mate.

Being married seems to unfit people for the single estate. They miss having their own homes. They miss the close companion to which they have been accustomed. They even miss having somebody handy to fight with, and they find that they are far lonelier than any old maid or bachelor. Therefore, they do well to marry.

But if they have children, they are not free to marry, as they please, anyone on whom their fancy falls. They have their children to consider, and they should think more of what kind of a stepmother or stepfather they are giving their children than they do about what sort of husband or wife a man or woman is likely to make.

A widow is generally a safe choice for a widower, because she also has had matrimonial experience, and understands the technique, so to speak, of matrimony. She is broken to the double harness and knows how to pull her half of the load.

She learned how to cook on her first husband, and is apt to be a satisfactory housekeeper. Her experience with her first husband has taught her not to expect too much of a man, and also how to sidestep a husband's peculiarities. Therefore, she is easy to get along with.

She is quite as likely as any other woman to make a good stepmother. Often, if she is a childless woman, she takes her stepchildren into her heart, and satisfies her mother-yearning by lavishing an affection and tenderness on them that makes them forget that they are motherless.

But the widow is only a good wife for the widower if she has no children of her own. It is madness even to think of marrying her, because she cannot keep from favoring her own to save her life.

In such a case a man finds that invariably he is toiling to give luxuries to another man's children, while his own are pushed aside and wear castoffs, and are the Cinderellas of the family. Two families do not mix; and if a third is added to it, bedlam ensues.

As for spinsters, they are the real manipulators, and they generally make just stepmothers, who do their duty by their stepchildren and keep them up to the mark, because they are trying out on the youngsters all their theories of child culture. DOROTHY DIX.

A vote of thanks was passed to Rev. E. O. Robertson for starting the club and a vote of sympathy was passed for the Rev. E. M. Cook who was unable to be present through ill health. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Howe and their son Gerald of Great Central Lake, were week-end visitors to friends in Chemainus. Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Ross motored to Shawnigan Lake on Sunday. Mrs. Ryder and her daughter, Miss Marjorie Ryder, have returned from a holiday at Chilliwack.
